Artist statement: Mythology teaches about who we are. I combine world mythological stories with personal experiences and literary creations. I find the fullest expression of my artistic credo in the mystical poetics of ancient civilizations, in Babylonian mysteries and Kabbalistic numerologies, the art of alchemy engendered by Hermes Trismegistus and the austere simplicity of Zen.

Education History: BFA (FIT); currently attending the Art Student's League of NY

Primary Medium: bronze, metal sculpture (welding), mobiles, miniature sculpture, furniture and display design.

Gallery sales in the past five years: Greenpoint Gallery in NYC, Cocoabar in NYC, Phyllis Harriman Mason Gallery in NYC, Bejoutique Gallery in NYC

Awards: winner of the Red Dot exhibition in 2012 at the Art Students League of New York.
